

Verna Braddock

The Brunswick News; 31 January 2001; pg. 3A?

Verna Mae Turner Braddock, 86, of Brunswick died Sunday at Baptist Hospital in Pensacola, Fla.

The funeral will be 3 p.m. Wednesday at Norwich Baptist Church with the Rev. David Stokes officiating. Burial will follow at Blount Crossing Cemetery.

Pallbearers will be Chris Allen, Steven Allen, Scott Johnson, Jeff Hendrix, Chuck Braddock, Matthew Braddock, James Smoak and Cliff Holcomb.

Honorary pallbearers will be Virgil Hickox, Randy Howell, Tommy Miller, Tommy Carter, Norman Strickland, Wayne Bennett, Edmond King, Jackie McKinsey and Delbert Sanders.

The family will receive friends from 6 to 8 p.m. today at the Chapman Funeral Chapel. Memorial contributions may be made to the Norwich Baptist Church Building Fund.

Surviving are her husband, Harry D. Braddock of Pensacola; a son, Milton Braddock of Brunswick; three daughters, Sarah B. Johnson of Charleston, S.C., Joyce Hendrix of Pensacola, and JoAnn Allen of Indialantic, Fla.; 10 grandchildren, one great-grandchild, and several nieces and nephews.

A life-long resident of Glynn County, Mrs. Braddock was the assistant jailer at the Glynn County Detention Center for 10 years. She was a member of Norwich Baptist Church.

Published: 1/31/2001