JOHN C. DAVIS DIES EARLY TODAY

John Childs Davis Jr., 68, of Brunswick died early today in the Glynn-Brunswick Memorial Hospital after a short illness.

The funeral will be held at 4 p.m. Tuesday in the chapel of Edo Miller and Sons Funeral Home with the Rev. Ben Rainey officiating. Entombment will follow in Davis Cemetery.

Active pallbearers will be L.E. Chapman, Keith Flanagan, Buddy Hunter, Jimmy Carter, Eldred Edgy and Jack Livingston. Honorary pallbearers will be members and congregation of New Hope Methodist Church.

The family will receive friends at the funeral home tonight from 7 to 9. The family asks any memorial contributions be made to a charity of the donor's choice.

Survivors include his wife, Arnette Davis of Brunswick; a daughter, Lynette Adams of Brunswick; two sons, John C. Davis III and Terry Davis both of Brunswick; a sister, Winnie Edgy of Brunswick, five grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews.

A lifelong resident of Glynn County, he was a charter member and deacon of New Hope Methodist Church. He was a veteran of World War II, serving in the U.S. Army, and was retired from the Georgia Department of Transportation.

Edo Miller and Sons Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
