WILTON D. EDGY DIES ON MONDAY RITES TOMORROW

Wilton D. Edgy, 67, a resident of Route 1, Box 715A, died Monday at the local hospital unexpectedly after a short illness.

A native of Brantley County, Edgy had lived in Glynn County for the past 40 years. He was retired from the timber business and was of the Protestant faith. He was a veteran of World War II, serving in the U.S. Army.

Survivors include his mother, Sara Daniels Edgy of Brunswick; three sisters, Elovie Walker of Fort Walton, Fla., Josephine Rowe of Florence, S.C., and Mrs. Arnette Davis of Brunswick; two brothers, Cecil Edgy and Carlyle (Buck) Edgy, both of Brunswick, several nieces and nephews; a stepdaughter, Melba George of Brunswick; a stepson, Calvin Henry of Brunswick.

Services will be held Wednesday at 11 a.m. in the chapel of McClurd-Mullis Memorial Funeral Home. The Rev. Ben Rainey will officiate. Interment will be at Davis Cemetery on Emanuel Church Road. The body will be placed in the chapel one hour prior to the time of the services.

Active pallbearers will be John Davis, Terry Davis, David Adams, Larry Edgy, David Edgy and Cecil Tucker.

The family will receive friends tonight from 7 until 9 o'clock at the funeral home. They will be at the residence of J.C. Davis, Route 1, Box 715, Emanuel Church Road.

McClurd-Mullis Memorial Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
