

Samuel Loper

The Brunswick News; Wednesday 8 January 1986; pg. 3A col. 4

S.E. LOPER DIES HERE EARLY TODAY

S.E. Loper, 82, of Brunswick, died early today in the Glynn-Brunswick Memorial Hospital.

Services and survivors will be announced later by Edo Miller and Sons Funeral Home.

The Brunswick News; Friday 10 January 1986; pg. 3A col. 5

LOPER FUNERAL IS HELD TODAY

Graveside services for S.E. Loper were scheduled this morning at Drury Cemetery.

Loper, 82, died Wednesday at the Glynn-Brunswick Memorial Hospital.

The Rev. Ben Rainey was to officiate the 11 a.m. service.

Survivors are three sons, Davis E. Loper of Jacksonville, Ken Loper of Sparks, Nev. And Carroll Loper of Brunswick; five daughters Jeanette Frame of Jacksonville, Doris Rountree of Jacksonville, Betty Holley of Theodore, Ala., Pat Dowling of Jacksonville and Jackie Flanagan of Brunswick; a brother, Robbie Loper of Bristol; four sisters, Jewel Smith and Ruby Boatright, both of Bristol, Vera Mobley of Patterson and Ida Loper of St. Marys; 24 grandchildren, 24 great-grandchildren, one great-great grandchild and several nieces and nephews.

Loper was a life long resident of Glynn County and was retired from the Seaboard Coastline Railroad. He was also a retired building contractor and a member of the Brookman New Hope Congregational Methodist Church in Brunswick.

Edo Miller & Sons Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.