FRANK D. SCARLETT PASSES AWAY AT HIS COUNTRY HOME

Frank D. Scarlett, 73, life long resident of Glynn county, passed away last night at the family home, Oak Grove, Fancy Bluff, after an illness which had extended over a period of 12 or 15 years.

Mr. Scarlett was a member of a prominent Glynn county family. His father was the late George S. Scarlett and his mother, Mrs. Virginia Tison Scarlett, pioneer residents of the county.

Mr. Scarlett attended local public schools, and later for a number of years he operated a boat line between Brunswick, Fancy Bluff and Spring Bluff. In those days there was no direct highway to the Fancy Bluff area, there being a dirt road, the distance from the city to Fancy Bluff via this road being approximately 30 miles. He had been a life long member of Emanuel Methodist church, located in the Fancy Bluff area.

He is survived by five sisters, Mrs. A.S. Hilsman, St. Simons Island, Mrs. F.A. Dunn, Miss Meta Scarlett, Miss Pauline Scarlett, and Mrs. Daisy S. Daniels, all of Fancy Bluff, and two brothers, G.S. Scarlett, Winston-Salem, N.C., and .R.M. Scarlett, Fancy Bluff. A number of nieces and nephews also survive.

Graveside funeral services will be held at the family cemetery at Oak Grove Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, to be conducted by the Rev. John Jenkins. The pallbearers will be L.E. Chapman, Frank Ratcliffe, Alex Atkinson, William Livingston, Ross Berrie and J.C. Davis. The Miller Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
