

Pauline Scarlett

The Brunswick News; Tuesday 4 May 1982; pg. 22A col. 6 & pg. 3A col. 1

MISS SCARLETT DIES ON MONDAY

Pauline Virginia Scarlett, 91, lifelong resident of Glynn County, died yesterday at the local hospital after an extended illness.

Miss Scarlett was a lifelong member of Emanuel Methodist Church where she taught Sunday school and played the organ for 40 years.

She was the granddaughter of Frances Muir Scarlett, who was born in London, England in 1785. He came to Glynn County as a young man and established the Scarlett home place known as "Oak Grove," on Georgia Highway 84. The home was closed in 1975.

Miss Scarlett is survived by nieces, Mrs. J.A. Blanton and Mrs. H.F. Adickes of St. Simons, Mrs. R.L. Pettigrew of Tappahannock, Va., Mrs. Rebecca Jackson of Atlanta, Mrs. Paul Dimmick of Lakewood, Ohio and Mrs. Marian Tison Harley of Brunswick; nephews, Henry T. Dunn of Lewisberg, W. Va., George Scarlett Beach of St. Simons and Georgia Stanton Scarlett of Brunswick; and a number of great nieces and nephews.

Graveside services will be held at the family cemetery at Oak Grove at 11 a.m. tomorrow with the Rev. Monroe Bennett officiating. Mrs. Robert McGregor will sing.

Honorary pallbearers will be Edgar Ratcliffe, W.T. Livingston, Jack Livingston, H.D. (Bud) Bell, G.B. Ham, Robert McGregor, William O'Quinn, Watkin O'Quinn, Max Williams, W.W. Cave, Kenneth Middleton, John L. Patterson, Dr. William Humphries and Dr. Haywood Moore.

Edo Miller & Sons Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.